Alex Morgan

with Jaret Ramirez | Completed

TODAY'S WIN

You described the people closest to you with precise vocabulary and supported your descriptions with specific examples.

Words worth keeping

reliable
Someone you can trust to do what they promise.

My colleague is reliable; she always follows through.

get along with
To have a friendly relationship with someone.

I get along with my neighbours.

supportive
Willing to help and encourage someone.

My sister is supportive when I try something new.

Say it better

YOU SAID
She have a great sense of humour.
TRY THIS
She has a great sense of humour.

Use has with he, she and it.

Sound more natural

reliable
Stress the second syllable: re-LI-a-ble.

He is a reliable friend.

Session review - continued

Keep this in mind

Show the quality with an example.
Explain what the person actually does so your description feels specific.

She is supportive: she checks in before every important meeting.

Your performance

Teacher assessment for this session - scale 0 to 5

CLASS NOTES
People and relationships: describe personalities, explain connections and give examples of qualities.

A NOTE FROM YOUR TEACHER
You described personalities with confidence and gave specific examples instead of listing adjectives. Your ideas were easy to follow. Use she has rather than she have when describing someone.

YOUR NEXT MOVE
Write 70 words about someone you admire. Describe two qualities and give one example of how they show those qualities.